SANEA MEMBERSHIP 2017: BENEFITS

(Benefits are subject to review from time to time)

SANEA's primary objective is to enhance the level of understanding and the quality of debate on energy matters, thereby contributing to improved decision making and provision of more equitable and sustainable energy systems.

All members contribute to the achievement of this objective through their membership subscriptions and their active engagement in SANEA activities.

The following activities are available to all SANEA Members:

- WEC Membership
- Expertise Database & SANEA E-Media
- CPD Points (also corporate member employees)
- WEC Study Programme Participation
- Technical Meetings (free, monthly)
- SANEA Ad Hoc Briefing Notes
- Technical Visits (free, bi-annually)
- SANEA Conferences (discounted member rates)

Corporate and Premier members have a particularly important role in SANEA and the following opportunities are reserved for them:
