

Bernard Magoro
General Manager of System Operator within Eskom Transmission Division
Eskom Holdings SOC Limited

Bernard is the General Manager of System Operator within Eskom Transmission Division, responsible for the real-time Grid security and supply / demand balance. He has been with System Operator for the past 17 years in various technical roles, 8 of which as a Corporate Specialist.

Bernard has played a leading role in the development of the South African Grid Code. In the last few years he has been instrumental in facilitating grid code compliance for the REIPP programme. He is a registered Professional Engineer.