

Johan van den Berg is a renewable energy practitioner. He serves on the Ministerial Advisory Commission on Energy and is the African Private Sector Focal Point for the Africa-EU Energy Partnership. An advocate, he has spent more than twenty years in dispute resolution; environmental mediation; climate change avoidance/emissions trading; and efforts to deploy renewable energy in Southern Africa. He was awarded the 2015 Global Sustainable Leadership Award by the World CSR congress in Mumbai, India. He is the author of “Nero’s Violin – the art of conviction in a divided world”.