

Brian Day
Project Portfolio Manager
Clean Energy Africa

Brian Day has 24 years' experience in both technical and civil society fields. Brian first worked for ISCOR in production and then technology development. He also did property development and construction. Brian started a church-based NGO in orphan care and community development in 1999. He then joined Exxaro Resources in 2007 and worked in Project Management and Energy. He was part of the team that established Cennergi; a cleaner energy IPP company in 2012. He has had a role in Advocacy, including Board roles in 2 industry associations. Brian spent just over a year as Head of Implementation at the IPP Office for the Department of Energy. He is currently working with Clean Energy Africa developing renewable energy projects.