

28 June 2018

Dear Energy Sector Professional

Invitation to BRICS Energy Event 2018, hosted by BRICS Business Council at IDC on 24 July 2018

South Africa will be hosting the BRICS Summit in July this year as South Africa assumes the rotating chairmanship of BRICS from China.

The BRICS Business Council's Energy and Green Economy Working Group is hosting the BRICS Energy Event 2018 on 24 July 2018 at the Industrial Development Corporation (IDC) in Sandton, Johannesburg, South Africa.

The BRICS Energy Event 2018 is aimed at bringing together 500 energy leaders, experts, energy companies, investors, government officials, academics and NGOs from BRICS countries, and other African countries.

The event will provide a platform for debate, innovation and action, with an opportunity for decision makers, investors and developers to network and move energy projects forward.

The primary focus of the BRICS Energy Event 2018 will be: “Energy Transition 4.0”

You are cordially requested to extend an invitation to your CEO and/or key Executives within your organisation that have an interest in the energy transition to attend this unique event.

The draft programme is detailed below:

10h00 - 11h00: Registration, networking and light brunch, with live music surprise

11h00 - 13h00: Morning plenary session for 500 attendees with opening choir

13h00 - 14h00: Three course buffet lunch and networking

14h00 - 16h30: Afternoon plenary session

16h30 - 18h30: Networking session with live Sophiatown singer and band

You are urged to register to attend the BRICS Energy Event 2018 without delay to avoid disappointment. Registrations will be accepted on a first-come, first-served basis for 500 attendees, and there is no cost to attend.
