

Xolani Yokwana

UNISA

Xolani Yokwana (BTech: Electrical Engineering, CUT Free State) currently Registered for a Masters' degree: Electrical Engineering, joined UNISA in 2016 as an Electrical Engineering Technologist (Electrical and Renewable Energies), College of Science, Engineering and Technology (CSET). Prior to this he worked at Tshwane University of Technology (TUT) based at eMalahleni Campus as an Electrical Technician (Power Engineering and Renewable Energies) for 4 years and at Transnet Rail Engineering as a trainee engineering technician.

Title: Feedback from talent bridge session Future Energy Leaders Congress 24th WEC