

Chiboni Evans

South African Electrotechnical Export Council

Director of the South African National Energy Association (SANEA)

Chiboni is currently CEO of the South African Electrotechnical Export Council and was appointed in this position in 2014. Prior to becoming CEO Chiboni was on the Board and Chair of the Board of the SAEEC since 2007.

Chiboni has worked in the UK and Zambia, has experience with major global organisations including Cargill, the Mars Corporation, SAB Miller, IMIS Global, Intercontinental Hotels and Deloitte. She has created valuable relationships with South African institutions such as the Department of Trade and Industry, the Industrial Development Corporation and the National Empowerment Fund through her business consulting firm, StratconsultSA. She has a deep knowledge of the energy sector